Dr. Sam Rutland, Temporary Stated Supply Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

Last night I attended one of the best musical events I've ever heard: Our own Brandon Glick with singer Lorrianna Colozzo. And the word is out concerning our HSCPC musical concerts: the sanctuary was packed. If you were there you are still singing the melodies from sacred selections, Andrew Lloyd Webber, Rogers and Hammerstein, and on, and on. Broadway and Puccini kissed at HSCPC... and it was spectacular.

And besides the soaring music, the other beautiful part is that the concert was offered free of charge. Brandon wanted, as did others, for students (we remember those days), as well as families with children to be more able to attend.

It's this kind of heart—this kind of love for the community—that speaks volumes about our Savior and His love for all. It also speaks to what kind of church HSCPC is: It is a “church with a mission to this community”.

Thank you, Brandon, and Lorrianna for an inspiring evening. (I’ll never hear “Lord of the Dance” again and not think of your arrangement). Thank you for the giving heart behind the music.

Again, it is fun to come to church each Sunday and to see new faces. I know some of you are telling your friends, “Something good is happening here”. Keep telling them. Better still, keep bringing your friends. That’s how any church grows. That’s how you live into God’s good future for HSCPC in 2017. God is with us.

I’ll see you Sunday!

Peace,

Sam

The Monday Evening concert featuring soprano Lorrianna Colozzo was indeed a marvelous success. In the preceding article, Dr. Rutland truly captured the excitement and enthusiasm of the audience as it was treated to such a delightful variety of musical selections. Our music director and concert organizer, Brandon Glick, also entertained with a piano solo, as well as providing superb piano accompaniment to Lorrianna. The appreciation of the audience was loudly expressed with a long standing ovation at the end of the concert and with a voluntary donation of over $900 in support of the church’s music program.

And the evening wasn’t over when the music ended. Following the concert, the audience was invited to the Social Hall for refreshments. There they had a chance to meet with Brandon and Lorrianna while enjoying a variety of goodies prepared and served by our wonderful Deacons.

Thank you, Brandon, for arranging such a wonderful musical evening. What a wonderful opportunity this was to welcome our neighbors and friends to our Church. So many of them helped to completely fill up the Sanctuary on Monday evening, and we all are now looking forward to the next event in this concert series.
